

HACK THE LIBRARY!

DIGITAL ART-BASE

July 9-11th. HUDSON AREA LIBRARY.

HACK THE LIBRARY! is a free weekend of labs centered around learning software to create digital work. Digital art is a medium that uses digital technology to create works of art. Participants will learn how to use the differing programs necessary to construct, share and maximize ideas culminating in a collaborative session in which participants will create a new website hosted on newhive.com on site at the Hudson Area Library. These labs encompasses sound, video and images made for but not limited to digital distribution. Labs will be run by artists whose work are specialized in the field. This art-base is geared toward kids aged 9-13 years old. Orientation will take place on Saturday, July 9, 2016 from 11 to 1PM. Sunday (July 10th) + Monday (July 11th) there will be a full day from 10 to 4 PM. Breakfast and Lunch will be provided. This program is co-organized by New York-based digital art educators, Powrplnt and the Hudson Area Library.
